

bring God's light to an amazing people

Welcome to the land of Braveheart and Rob Roy, of shortbread and Highland Games! Imagine sitting on the shore of a loch (lake) and hearing the mournful cry of bagpipes across the water.

While Scotland is a first-world country, it is a post-Christian, nearly atheistic land, ready for the Gospel! Join NEXT GENERATION MISSION in cooperation with Youth For Christ Scotland, the Church of Scotland, and other local churches for an experience designed to give you a taste of life in another country through cultural events, conversation with nationals, and work alongside missionaries.

The Scottish people are proud and claim quite an interesting history and heritage. But their individual future is uncertain-- without Christ they have no hope.

NEXT GENERATION MISSION offers our Scotland trips to those in 11th grade and older. The teams will focus on training within the local church and presenting the Gospel of Jesus Christ in public squares through band and drama, meeting searching Scotsmen, and exploring God's call in your own life.

Come experience fish and chips, tea and scones, and maybe even haggis! But even more, come to Scotland and fall in love with a people Jesus loves fiercely and wants to call His own. Be part of reclaiming this rich land for the Kingdom-- you will never be the same!

why Scotland?

- Ministry in an English-speaking, post-modern culture
- Work alongside established missionaries
- Over 5.1 million people with no spiritual connection (and no relationship with Christ)
- An excellent vision-casting trip for those interested in missions
- Provides a stepping stone into missions and other ministry projects as a lifestyle

*With God's power working in us, God can do much, much more than we ask or imagine
